2. Researches and responds to authorized information requests from the public, businesses, outside agencies, and City staff; including all types of archived records, ordinances, codes, and policies.
3. Posts, verifies and enters City records information into database; processes and audits documents and records inventory system to maintain and locate records.
4. Operates a variety of electronic document imaging and micrographic equipment to store information; reviews quality of image and accuracy of indexing.
5. Attends bid openings; receives, logs, opens and monitors bids; maintains custody of bid bonds.
6. Compiles and maintains records for all City departments in a centralized records center; prepares records for storage; shelves, retrieves, audits, and stores boxed records.
7. Prepares and processes departmental logs, including the processing of City ordinances, resolutions, reports and bonds.
8. Maintains and updates departmental reference materials; screens and directs department mail and phone calls.
9. Prepares and edits general correspondence, memorandums and documents to the public, businesses, outside agencies, and other department representatives.
10. May assist with the training of temporary and volunteer staff.

SENIOR RECORDS SPECIALIST

IN ADDITION TO THE ABOVE, FUNCTIONS MAY ALSO INCLUDE:

11. Provides specialized expertise and performs administrative duties for one or more assigned operational functions within the department; interprets and explains regulations, procedures, policies, systems, rules and precedents in response to inquiries.
12. Prepares special reports and listings, including inventory, retrieval, destruction and research reports, subpoenas, and related documentation.
13. Verifies and reviews forms and reports for completeness and conformance with established regulations and procedures.
14. Monitors processing of formal determinations following Council action.
15. Processes, monitors, and publishes codification of ordinances.
16. Prepares, processes and arranges for publication of legal notices in accordance with City and State legal requirements.
17. Administers citywide document retention and destruction activities and documentation.
18. Assists in the development of departmental procedures and standards.
19. Determines appropriate uses of organizing and retrieving information; audits documents and records inventory system to maintain and locate records; identifies and corrects errors.
