Abstract

This collection is comprised of 5 scrapbooks (or reproduced pages therefrom) and a set of business papers. Included are concert programs, news clippings about upcoming concerts, and reviews from the Daily Report, the Progress Bulletin, the San Bernardino Sun and the Kaiser Steel Company's house organ "The Ingot". Several photos, invitations to fund-raising dinners and membership cards are also included. The first three scrapbooks are from the Ontario-Upland Community Concert Association which existed from 1956-69.

The next 2 scrapbooks/reproduced pages and business papers are from the Pomona Civic Music Association which changed names in January 1959 to the Pomona Community Concert Association after it affiliated with the Civic Concert Service, Inc. from New York. These scrapbooks cover 1953-1985 with the business files covering just the concert year 1982/83.

In June 1969, the boards of both the Ontario-Upland and Pomona Community Concert Associations merged to form the Pomona Valley Community Concert Association. There is mention of the Association in the Inland Valley Daily Bulletin from 1997, but it is unclear whether this organization is still active as of Nov. 2008.
