Abstract

The Ramblers Club began on June 25, 1909 as a travel study club, with 16 charter members. The Club had its 100th anniversary in 2009. According to a current member, Helen Peterson, there are some doubts as to how much longer the Club will be active past 2010. The collection given to the Model Colony Room includes minutes from June 25, 1909 through 1983, a history of the club, four scrapbooks of news clippings, photos, and papers presented, and 2 boxes of programs listing the current members, the papers presented that year and a calendar of club meetings.
