On Wednesday, October 2, 2019 the Ontario City Library will be hosting Superfan Frenzy in the Lightspeed Makerspace from 6:00 PM until 8:00 PM. Get creative with the library's state-of-the-art equipment. You can design a jersey, print a hockey puck or laser cut a hockey stick to support the kings of the rink. Skate over to Lightspeed and join the fun! All that is missing is ice and a Zamboni.

This program is free for ages 13 years and older and will take place at the Ovitt Family Community Library located at 215 E. C Street in Ontario. For more information, please call (909) 395-2220 or visit www.OntarioCA.gov/Library.
